

WESTERN ENERGY SERVICES CORP.

INSIDER TRADING POLICY

STATEMENT OF POLICY

The purpose of this Policy is to ensure that Western Energy Services Corp. (the "Corporation") and all persons to whom this Policy applies meet their obligations under the provisions of securities laws and stock exchange rules by establishing a process for the timely disclosure of all Material Information (as defined herein), ensuring that all persons to whom this Policy applies understand their obligations to preserve the confidentiality of Undisclosed Material Information and ensuring that all appropriate parties who have Undisclosed Material Information are prohibited from Insider Trading and Tipping under applicable law, stock exchange rules and this Policy. This Policy covers disclosures in documents filed with the securities regulators and written statements made in the Corporation's annual and quarterly reports, news releases, letters to shareholders, presentations by senior management and information contained on the Corporation's web site and other electronic communications. It extends to oral statements made in meetings and telephone conversations with analysts and investors, interviews with the media as well as speeches, press conferences and conference calls.

Except as specifically defined in Schedule 'A' all terms used in this Policy (whether capitalized or not) have the meanings set forth in the Securities Act (Alberta) and applicable rules thereunder.

COMPLIANCE WITH LAWS, RULES AND REGULATIONS

This Policy applies to all directors, officers, employees and consultants of the Corporation and its affiliates or individuals authorized to speak on behalf of the Corporation.

New directors, officers, employees and consultants of the Corporation and its Affiliates will be provided with a copy of this Policy when they join the Corporation or an Affiliate. Each director, officer, employee or consultant of the Corporation and its Affiliate will be required to complete and return to the Chief Financial Officer the Certification Statement attached hereto as Schedule 'B'.

Any director, officer, employee or consultant of the Corporation who violates this Policy may face disciplinary action up to and including termination of his or her employment or contract for cause and without notice. Violation of this Policy may also constitute a breach of securities law, including laws against Insider Trading and Tipping, and the Corporation may refer any such breach to the appropriate regulatory authority. Accordingly, violation of this Policy could lead to fines, penalties, imprisonment and liability to investors and the Corporation for damages.

PURCHASE AND SALE OF SECURITIES

A. TRADING OFFICER

The "Trading Officer" will be the Chief Executive Officer, the Chief Financial Officer or the Chief Operating Officer of the Corporation. The Trading Officer will be available to any director, officer, employee or consultant contemplating a purchase or sale of any Securities of the Corporation who may wish to consult with the Trading Officer regarding the advisability of such trade.

B. PROHIBITION AGAINST TIPPING AND INSIDER TRADING OF CORPORATION SECURITIES

No director, officer, employee or consultant of the Corporation or its Affiliates: (i) may purchase or sell Securities of the Corporation while they possess Undisclosed Material Information or (ii) may inform others of Undisclosed Material Information, except in the necessary course of business. Doing so, in either case, would constitute a breach of this Policy and constitute Tipping.

No director or officer of the Corporation, nor any individual listed on Schedule 'C' may purchase or sell Securities of the Corporation during a Black-out Period. The Corporation shall not grant any stock options to Insiders during a Black-out Period.

C. EXCEPTIONS

The trading prohibitions in subsection B (i) above do not apply to: (i) the acquisition of Securities through the exercise of stock options but do apply to the subsequent sale of the Securities received on such exercise and the triggering of any exercise or payment right in connection with any "phantom" stock option plan which may be adopted by the Corporation; or (ii) the acquisition of Securities through the special group RRSP Plan.

OTHER ISSUERS

Insider Trading in Securities of another public issuer and Tipping in respect of Securities of another public issuer, by the Corporation, Affiliates, directors, officers, employees and consultants of the Corporation and its Affiliates can bring the Corporation into disrepute. Accordingly, neither the Corporation nor its Affiliates nor a director, officer, employee or consultant of the Corporation or its Affiliates, who is in a special relationship with another public issuer, shall engage in any Insider Trading in Securities of another public issuer or any Tipping in respect of Securities of another public issuer.

INSIDER REPORTS

Immediately after becoming an Insider and immediately following the purchase or sale of any Securities of the Corporation, an Insider must ensure that their insider trading report is electronically filed in accordance with applicable securities laws

The office of the Corporation's Corporate Secretary can prepare and electronically file insider reports, if requested, relating to the granting of employee stock options, and the purchase (including the exercise of options) or sale of Securities. However, it is the responsibility of the Insider to ensure insider reports are filed electronically within the required time period.

ADDITIONAL PROHIBITED TRANSACTIONS

Because the Corporation believes it is improper and inappropriate for any Corporation personnel to engage in short-term or speculative transactions involving Securities of the Corporation, no director, officer, employee or consultant of the Corporation or its

Affiliates shall engage in any of the following activities with respect to the Securities of the Corporation:

- Trading in Securities on a short-term basis. Any Corporation Securities purchased on the open market must be held for a minimum of four months and ideally longer;
- Purchase of Corporation Securities on margin for the purpose of short term speculation;
- Short sales;
- Buying or selling “put” or “call” options.

CONSEQUENCES OF NON-COMPLIANCE WITH THIS POLICY

Any director, officer, employee or consultant of the Corporation who violates this Policy may face disciplinary action up to and including termination of his or her employment or contract for cause and without notice. Violation of this Policy may also constitute a breach of securities law, including laws against Insider Trading and Tipping, and the Corporation may refer any such breach to the appropriate regulatory authority. Accordingly, violation of this Policy could lead to fines, penalties, imprisonment and liability to investors and the Corporation for damages.

Approved by the Board of Directors March 22, 2010

SCHEDULE "A"

Definitions

"Black-out Period" means:

- (i) each period beginning two weeks prior to the disclosure of the financial results for each fiscal quarter and each fiscal year by way of a press release, and continuing until the end of the first Trading Day after the financial results have been disclosed by way of a press release.; and
- (ii) any other period designated by the Disclosure Committee.
